NAAC Accreditation

Our college was assessed by NAAC peer team for accreditation and graded 'A' with 3.31 CGPA in the third cycle. The peer team was highly appreciative of all the stake holders for their contribution in quality sustenance. I join the college management to thank our staff both teaching and administrative, the students, and parent teacher and alumni associations for their support and effort in retaining the grade and enhancing the CGPA from 3.04 to 3.31. We place on record the tireless efforts of our teaching and administrative staff in 'A' grade accreditation by NAAC.

New entrance arch and Garden:

Our correspondent's first wish was to give a new look to the campus and he did it by constructing the entrance arch and raising a small garden. We appreciate his initiative and remain thankful to him.

Bus Stand:

It was a long standing necessity of the students and faculty to have a bus stand. The newly constructed bus stand is the generous contribution of Smt. Sulochana R. Shetty, the good neighbour of our college. The boards displayed around the bus stand and in the surroundings were sponsored by our PTA and Sri. Prathviraj Achar Anugraha Jewellers Kinnigoli. We remain greatfull to Mrs. Sulochana R. Shetty and her family for their generous contribution. We thank our PTA and Sri. Prathviraj Achar for sponsoring the display boards in the surroundings in the bus stand, we also plays on record the efforts of Sri Santhan D'souza the management committee member for his efforts in getting the sponsors for the bus stand and various boards displayed thereon.

PTA's contribution – Borewell

The problem of derth of water on the campus was solved by our proved PTA by contributing to the expenses of sinking borewell and installing a pump for the same. We proposly thank our PTA for this significant contribution.

Alumni's contribution :Tiled flooring to all the staff rooms:

College Alumni association took up the responsibility of laying off tiles to the floors of all the staff rooms and already paid a part of the total expenses and is willing to pay off the balance in the due course. We remain to grateful to our proved Alumni association for their concern to the institution.
